Price Appreciation Expected to Continue

Newport Beach, CA, October 4, 2024 — The Green Street Commercial Property Price Index® was unchanged in September. The all-property index has increased by 3% this year.

“Property prices have increased this year, and we expect further appreciation,” said Peter Rothmund, Co-Head of Strategic Research at Green Street. “The decline in bond yields over the past several months makes commercial property more attractive.”

About the Green Street Commercial Property Price Index®

Green Street’s Commercial Property Price Index® is a time series of unleveraged U.S. commercial property values that captures the prices at which commercial real estate transactions are currently being negotiated and contracted. Features that differentiate this index are its timeliness, its emphasis on high-quality properties, and its ability to capture changes in the aggregate value of the commercial property sector.

Green Street Commercial Property Price Index® Fact Sheet

Green Street's Commercial Property Price Index® is a time series of unleveraged U.S. commercial property values that captures the prices at which commercial real estate transactions are currently being negotiated and contracted. Features that differentiate this index are its timeliness, its emphasis on high-quality properties, and its ability to capture changes in the aggregate value of the commercial property sector.

Key Attributes of Green Street's Commercial Property Price Index®

- Institutional Quality: The index is based on Green Street's frequently updated estimates of price appreciation of the property portfolios owned by the REITs in its U.S. coverage universe. It is driven by the NAV models maintained by the research team, which, in turn, are driven primarily by changes in market cap rates and NOI growth. Since REITs own high-quality properties, the index measures the value of institutional-quality commercial real estate.
- Timeliness: Other indexes, based on either closed transactions or formal appraisals, reflect market prices from several months earlier. Also, the Green Street index value for a given month is released within days of month-end, whereas other indexes have a sizable lag.
- Gauge of Aggregate Values: Akin to familiar stock price indexes (e.g., S&P 500), asset value weighting provides a gauge of aggregate (as opposed to average) values. Equal-weighted indexes, by contrast, put the same emphasis on a small suburban strip center as they do a Manhattan office building.

The results shown above are hypothetical; they do not represent the actual trading of securities. Green Street does not provide research recommendations in its capacity as an investment adviser, does not act as a fiduciary to clients with respect to research recommendations, does not tailor recommendations to any investment objective or risk profile of any individual investor, and does not manage securities portfolios for any client. No investor should rely on research recommendations as investment advice. Actual performance of any investor's portfolio will vary from the hypothetical performance shown above due to, but not limited to 1) advisory fees and other expenses that one would pay to an investment adviser; 2) transaction costs; 3) the inability to execute trades at the last published price (the hypothetical returns assume execution at the last closing price); 4) the inability to maintain an equally-weighted portfolio in size (the returns above assume an equal weighting); and 5) the extent to which an investor incorporated other investments into a securities portfolio. Additionally, market and economic factors will almost certainly cause an investor to invest differently than projected by the model that simulated the above returns. All returns include the reinvestment of dividends. Past performance, particularly hypothetical performance, cannot be used to predict future performance. Investing involves risk and possible loss of principal capital.

- (1) Hypothetical performance is based on research reports made by Green Street's Research Team (includes securities in the US, Canada, and Europe). Since July 5, 2017, performance is calculated whenever a recommendation is changed using the share price at the most recent market close. Previously, performance was based on recommendations provided in Green Street's "Real Estate Securities Monthly" (RESM) and assumed no change in recommendation between RESM publications.
- (2) Beginning July 5, 2017, all companies in Green Street's coverage universe are included in the performance calculation. Previously, inclusion in the calculation of total return had been based on whether the companies were listed in the primary exhibit of Green Street's "Real Estate Securities Monthly" and had a rating other than "Not Rated".
- (3) From 1993 until July 3, 2017, the returns for each year cover the period following the first RESM issued in the respective year through the first RESM issued in the following year and are not based on a calendar year. Subsequent to July 5, 2017, returns are based on calendar months.

"Buy" = Most attractively valued stocks. "Hold" = Fairly valued stocks. "Sell" = Least attractively valued stocks. "Not Rated" companies are covered by the firm's research department, but are not rated due to fundamental attributes related to business prospects and balance sheets that are deemed to make the securities more option-like than equity-like.

Green Street will furnish upon request available information regarding the recommendation
